AT IT AGAIN.

The anti-Penn Squarites are bent upon furnishing entertainment to the citizens of Philadelphia, and it would not be surprising, even after the public buildings are erected upon the intersection of Broad and Market streets, dedicated to their uses with imposing ceremonies, and occupied by the courts and municipal officers, if the Washington Square property-holders were to continue to call mass meetings, to petition the Legislature, to appeal to the courts, and to carry on generally just as they are now doing, and with about as much chance of having the buildings torn down as they now have of preventing their erection.

From the perishable nature of these fruits it is highly important that they should be transported to market with regularity and dispatch, as otherwise growers will be subjected to frequent losses. We are pleased to learn that, notwithstanding the great increase this year, all the fruit has been got to market with great promptness and without accident or damage.

agreed to keep silent even if he does not advance the treaty. The average Johnny Bull, who would rather do anything in the world than apologize, is pacified by the Times with the delusive assurance that free trade is making such rapid progress in the United States that the profits on English manufactures will in a short time be so great as to more than counterbalance any mortification caused by the treaty, and the recalcitrant Canadians are soothed with the assurance that the ratification of the treaty by the imperial government will not prejudice their interests so far as the claims relating to the fisheries and other questions at issue between the United States and Canada are concerned.

CONNECTICUT is apparently about to make an effort to reform her disgracefully loose system of granting divorces, as a bill has been introduced in the Legislature in compliance with the recommendation of Governor Jewell, which, if it becomes a law, will prevent the land of the wooden nutmeg makers from being any longer the favorite refuge of those who hold that marriage is nothing more than a partnership that may be dissolved at pleasure.

SMALL FRUIT SHIPMENTS. The Season of 1871—Immense Increase in Shipments—More than Double those of Last Year.

The increased attention which is being paid to small fruits, etc., by the agriculturists of Delaware, Eastern Shore of Maryland and the neighboring country is well shown by the following comparative statement of the articles transported by the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, in May, 1870, and in May, 1871.

Table with columns: Number of Carloads, Del. R. R. to Jersey City, Phila. to Jersey City, Balt. to Jersey City, Total, Increase.

These cars were not entirely loaded with any one kind of fruit, but by far the greater number were loaded wholly with strawberries, and all nearly so. Calculating each quart of strawberries as two pounds, we have the equivalent of 1,035,000 quarts in May, 1870, and 2,992,000 quarts in May, 1871, being an increase for this year of 1,957,000 quarts, as compared with last year.

Governor Weston's Inaugural Message.—CONCORD, N. H., June 14.—Governor Weston's inaugural message states that the receipts of the treasury for the year were $1,193,325; expenditures, $1,088,886, of which sum $429,204 was applied to the payment of the State debt.

In national politics he speaks as follows:—It is the occasion of congratulation that the Union is restored, and that all citizens are entitled to protection in the rights guaranteed by the Constitution, and that he believes all to endeavor to cultivate those relations of amity in which the Union had its origin, and which must be fully restored if we would realize the obvious advantages the Union was designed to secure.

Democratic Rejoicings.—CONCORD, N. H., June 14.—This is a gala day in New Hampshire, and the Democracy commenced at sunrise to fire a salute of thirty-four rounds, which aroused everybody. The country people are pouring into town from all quarters, and up to 11 o'clock ninety car loads arrived.

A special train of twenty-five cars over the Concord road arrived at 11 o'clock, bringing the Governor elect, the "Amoskeag Veterans," General Hancock, and the local guards, and other military organization, known as "Sheridan Guards," and a large number of others.

The Legislature having met, took a recess and proceeded to the depot where the procession was formed and escorted the Governor elect to the Capitol. Governor Stearns then delivered the valedictory address, after which Governor Weston was inaugurated and read his message.

Gov. Stearns' Valedictory.—CONCORD, N. H., June 14. gives a favorable account of the material interests of the State. The debt is $2,500,000, on which the interest does not exceed one per cent, with an annual reduction of six per cent of the debt. The tax of one per cent, exacted from the receipts of foreign investments has resulted in a saving of nearly $15,000 in the last twenty months.

The Legislature having met, took a recess and proceeded to the depot where the procession was formed and escorted the Governor elect to the Capitol. Governor Stearns then delivered the valedictory address, after which Governor Weston was inaugurated and read his message.

The friends making the disturbance professed to be of Mr. Moore, and their conduct was certainly most reprehensible. We have never attended a more disorderly convention, and many of the Democratic nominating bodies would be highly respectable when compared with it.

Mr. Hancock was, at the conclusion of the ballot, declared the nominee, and the convention adjourned sine die.

City Solicitor—Nomination of C. H. T. Collins. The convention then proceeded to business, and the following candidates were placed in nomination:—General C. H. T. Collins, Thomas J. Worrell (present incumbent), John C. Redheffer, Thirteenth ward.
